

GOALS

ALIRP aims to support Refugees and Asylum-Seekers Locally and Globally by:

- 1. Educating the community and elected officials about the current refugee crisis and the process of refugee resettlement;
- 2. Advocating for policies that address the root causes of the refugee crisis, and that increase U.S. support for refugees; and
- 3. Providing direct support for refugees and asylum-seekers in the United States and in the Birmingham community.

MISSION

We are a diverse group of individuals, religious leaders, members of faith communities, and community organizations who have come together for the purpose of helping refugees and asylum-seekers, in light of the current migration crisis that has displaced millions of people. ALIRP is a 501(c)3 organization and does not engage in any proselytizing or promotion of any particular religion or political affiliation.

BECOMING AN ALIRP PARTNER

You may be eligible to receive support from ALIRP if you meet the following conditions:

- You are a refugee or unaccompanied minor, or you are seeking asylum or another humanitarian immigrant status.
- You have a work permit, have applied for a work permit, or agree to apply for a work permit as soon as possible.
- You have never been ordered removed or deported from the US

SERVICES WE OFFER

Depending on your need, ALIRP may be able to provide the following services

- Financial support, for example, rent, utilities, groceries, assistance with legal fees.
- Support from Volunteers, such as grocery/food delivery, transportation, English practice, general support other than financial assistance

If you believe you are eligible and have unmet needs:
